

workplace law environmental

IEMA Foundation Certificate in Environmental Management by e-learning

- Understand the importance and benefits of integrating environmental issues into the business process
- Have an appreciation of the driving forces leading to the introduction of Environmental Management Systems into an organisation and their potential benefits
- Outline the structure of environmental legislation and understand its impact on business
- Appreciate the role of the key regulatory agencies
- Outline how an environmental review is conducted
- Identify significant environmental impacts of organisations

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a white sleeveless top, is sitting in a field of tall green grass. She is looking up towards the sky and has a laptop open on her lap. The background is a bright blue sky with white clouds.

APPROVED TRAINING PROVIDER

From £386.10 ^{+VAT} · Guaranteed pass[†] · No carbon footprint!

Introducing the IEMA Foundation Certificate by e-learning

Through the Workplace Law Direct Study Centre you can study when you like, where you like, at the speed you want to. IEMA e-learning is a unique web-based training course from Workplace Law leading to the award of the IEMA Foundation Certificate in Environmental Management.

The benefits:

- Study anywhere – from Dundee to Dover!
- Study at a time that suits you
- Save your company money by cutting out travelling costs and time spent away from work
- Greater flexibility – allows you to study around your existing work commitments

E-learning made fun!

IEMA Foundation Certificate e-learning is different from anything you have seen before and is all about:

Fun!

Learning the theory of environmental management doesn't have to be boring. The IEMA e-learning course has been designed with our students in mind to help make the course as fun and engaging as possible.

Interactivity!

There's much more to this course than studying text books! Our interactive learning platform incorporates multiple choice questions, drag and drop quizzes, online video and animated designs to help explain course content in an accessible and interesting way.

Getting involved!

Workplace Law Training is a specialist e-learning provider with a deserved reputation for excellence. We aim to be the leading provider of the IEMA Foundation Certificate in the UK. You will be joining an expanding number of UK professionals gaining accreditation the Workplace Law way.

Support!

Contact your tutor direct via email or find the answer to any of our frequently asked questions online.

Visit iema.workplacelaw.net

Why choose Workplace Law?

⚙️ Excellent tutor support

email direct (Mon-Fri 9am - 5pm)

⚙️ Choose when you start and finish

giving you greater flexibility

⚙️ Take your exam online

giving you more flexibility and no need to travel

⚙️ Interact with fellow students

using our online forum – share your experiences with other students ⚙️ Start today!

simply go online, log in and get studying

Call 0871 777 8881 to get started today

No carbon footprint

You can study the IEMA Foundation Certificate anywhere – all you need is access to a computer and the internet.

- No travel costs
- No time out of the office
- No carbon footprint

†Guaranteed pass

Study with Workplace Law Training and benefit from our guaranteed pass scheme.

We will give you full access and support to the IEMA e-learning course until you pass the IEMA Foundation Certificate.

Terms and conditions apply.
See www.workplacelaw.net/IEMA/guaranteed-pass

HEMA FOUNDATION CERTIFICATE IN ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT SYLLABUS

MODULE 1: SUSTAINABLE BUSINESS THINKING

- Key environmental issues and their relevance to business, e.g. climate change, greenhouse effect, acid rain, ozone depletion, pollution of land, air and water, loss of biodiversity, deforestation, population growth and consumption, non-renewable resource use and desertification.
- The importance of integrating environmental issues into the business process and the potential business benefits of doing so.
- The driving forces leading to the introduction of Environmental Management Systems into an organisation and their potential benefits.
- Principles and benefits of effective resource use.

MODULE 2: LEGISLATION

- The structure of UK and national environmental legislation.
- Potential impact of key pieces of legislation on business.
- The role of the key regulatory agencies.
- How economic instruments influence environmental behaviour.

MODULE 3: TOOLS FOR THE ASSESSMENT AND INTERPRETATION OF ENVIRONMENTAL PERFORMANCE

- The purpose and nature of the Initial Environmental Review.
- How an Environmental Review is conducted.
- Identifying significant environmental impacts of organisations.
- The purpose and nature of an environmental audit.
- How an audit is carried out.

MODULE 4: ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS

- The key elements of ISO 14001.
- The scope of the ISO 14000 series standards and their relationship with other management system specifications.
- How to take on an active role within the environmental management process.

Call now on 0871 777 8881

